Application for Admission to the LL.D. (Comparative Law) Program in Law and Political Science for International Students
October Enrollment 2008
Sponsored by the Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarship
Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (GSL), Japan

The Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (GSL) invites applications for the LL.D. (Comparative Law) Program in Law and Political Science for International Students from Asian countries and elsewhere. A limited number of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, Government of Japan (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarships* are available for this Program on a competitive basis.

* A MEXT Scholarship is open to persons who are recommended by partner universities in Asia that, in connection with the Program, have concluded an academic exchange agreement with the Nagoya University Graduate School of Law and who meet the MEXT Scholarship requirements. Those who wish to apply for a MEXT sponsored seat should go through the application procedure shown in this booklet. Details of the Program are available in the booklet 'Admission – LL.M (Comparative Law) & LL.D. (Comparative Law) Program in Law and Political Science for International Students, 2008.' As for our overseas partner institutions, please refer to our School web site: <http://gsl-nagoya-u.net>.

1. Admission Requirements

Nationality: Applicants must be non-Japanese citizens of developing or newly industrialized countries. Preference will be given to applicants from the Asian region.

Academic Qualifications:

Those who meet one of the following qualifications are eligible to apply:

- 1) Applicants who have completed or are expecting to complete a master's level program in foreign countries, which is recognized as equivalent to or above that of a master's program at Nagoya University by September 30, 2008;
- 2) Applicants who have obtained a Master's Degree or the equivalent of a professional degree from an accredited Japanese university;
- 3) Applicants who have obtained a Master's Degree or the equivalent of a professional degree through taking correspondence courses in Japan provided by foreign schools;
- 4) Applicants who have obtained a Master's Degree or the equivalent of a professional degree by completing a graduate course managed by a foreign institution situated in Japan that is recognized as part of the formal educational system of the foreign country and for which the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology has indicated approval;
- 5) Applicants who are designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (Notification No.118 of the Ministry of Education of 1989);
- 6) Applicants who are recognized by our Graduate School as possessing academic ability equivalent to or above that of a Masters or a person who has obtained a Master's degree or a professional degree on the basis of the individual preliminary screening of qualifications* and are age 24 or over by September 30, 2008.

Note: Those wishing to qualify under category (5) or (6) should consult with the Student Affairs Section of the GSL Administrative Office by December 4, 2007.

Health Conditions: Applicants should be in good mental and physical health.

Language Proficiency: Sufficient English language proficiency is required. Japanese language proficiency is not a prerequisite to admission. However, candidates for the LL.D. (Comparative Law) Program will be expected to develop a degree of Japanese language proficiency to carry out their research, and therefore, applicants who have Japanese reading ability will be favored.

Time of Arrival in Japan: Applicants must arrive in Japan between October 1 and October 7, 2008.

Prerequisites to MEXT Scholarship Program:

- 1) Applicants must be less than 35 years of age, as of April 2008 (born after April 2, 1973).
- 2) Military personnel on the active list or military civilian employees are ineligible.
- 3) In case that a grantee of a MEXT Scholarship fails to arrive in Japan within the stipulated period of time, travel expenses to Japan and arrival allowance for initial location expenses will not be provided.
- 4) Those already receiving financial support from institutions other than the Japanese Government (including the government of their home country) are ineligible for a MEXT Scholarship. Applicants who expect to receive scholarships from other governments or private foundations must consult the GSL Admission Office (contact details on p.5) in advance of their application.
- 5) Applicants who were awarded a MEXT Scholarship in the past should only be recommended if they have had three or more years' research or teaching experience after returning to their home country. However, those who obtained a MEXT Scholarship categorized as the "Training Course in Japanese Language & Culture" may apply for admission to this scholarship program within three years, provided that they have completed their undergraduate studies.
- 6) Those who have submitted applications for a MEXT Scholarship categorized as University Recommendation to other institutions in Japan, the simultaneous MEXT Scholarship categorized as Embassy Recommendation or the Short-term Exchange Program Scholarship, as provided by the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO), are ineligible for this special application. Note should be taken that the detection of multiple applications for the same scholarship, as well as combined applications for the above scholarships will result in the termination of offers of admission.

2. Admission Openings

There are five openings in the Program each year. Of these openings, three are reserved for seats sponsored by a MEXT scholarship.

3. Application Procedures

Those who wish to apply for the Program sponsored by a MEXT Scholarship should obtain application materials in the first instance from local partner institutions that, in connection with the Program, have concluded academic and educational exchange agreements with the Nagoya University Graduate School of Law.

Deadline for application:

The deadline for the reception of the application is Wednesday, January 9, 2008. No applications will be accepted after this deadline.

Submission of application:

Applicants are required to submit the application and supporting documents listed below through local partner institutions to the Student Affairs Section of the GSL Administrative Office by registered airmail, no later than the closing date for applications given above.

Note: Candidates to a MEXT sponsored seat are exempted from the application fee.

Application and supporting documents:

Documents for application should be prepared in English, typewritten or neatly written in block letters, and submitted on A4-sized paper. In the event that application materials below are prepared in a language other than English or Japanese, a translation into one of these languages should be attached. The translation must be a literal and complete version of the original document.

- 1) Application Data Sheet;
- 2) Application for Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Form No.1-1;
- 3) Application for Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship (ANNEX) Form No.1-2;
- 4) Field of Study and Proposed Research Plan (dissertation proposal) on prescribed form No.2;
- 5) Degree, diploma or certificate of (prospective) completion of master's program issued by the university attended and the degree or certificate of graduation from the undergraduate school;
- 6) Transcript of academic records of a master's program and transcript of undergraduate studies issued from each university attended. If original documents are not available, please supply certified copies of the original documents. Those who have completed the master's program at the Graduate School of Law, Nagoya University do not have to submit them.

Important notes:

A transcript should attach the grading system adopted by the concerned institution which clearly describes the correspondence between number grades and letter grades (A, B, C) and other grades rules;

- 7) Three copies of an applicant's Master's thesis and abstract on one A4 paper. Three copies of a supplementary thesis or paper can be attached;
- 8) Certificates of English and Japanese proficiency:
 - a) Documents certifying English Language Proficiency: An official score report of TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) which have to be sent directly from the institutions providing testing service to our School, IELTS (International English Language Testing System), or TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication);
* In principle, we cannot accept institutional TOEFL Program (TOEFL-ITP) score results. In case of sending the TOEFL-ITP score results, please attach a statement of the reason why you cannot submit official TOEFL score reports.
 - b) Japanese Language Proficiency Test score sheets or equivalent (for reference only);

- 9) A letter of recommendation on prescribed form No.4, issued from university of affiliation's president or dean (addressed to the president of the host university);
- 10) Two photographs (6 × 4 cm in size) taken within the past six months with the applicant's name and nationality written on the back, one of which should be pasted on the application form;
- 11) A list of theses, articles or books the applicant has published, if any, that gives title, date of publication, name of publisher and a summary;
- 12) Proof of citizenship or nationality or enlistment on family register for those applying from abroad (e.g. a copy of passport);
- 13) Health Certificate (Form No.5) based on a medical examination within the past six months; and,
- 14) Contact address labels: Please complete them, as indicated, with your complete mailing address where you can be reached between now and May 2008 on each label.

Related notes:

- 1) Submitted documents will not be returned.
- 2) Incomplete and late applications will not be considered. After applications are filed, changes in submitted documents will not be permitted. In addition, we will not accept applications unless all documents for application are sent by registered airmail. Applications via facsimiles or e-mail are not acceptable.
- 3) A false statement, misrepresentation or omission provided by the applicant in the applications may be the basis for denial of admission or dismissal from the Graduate School of Law, Nagoya University.

4. Screening Process and Notification

1. Screening by the Nagoya University Graduate School of Law and notification:

The Nagoya University Graduate School of Law will select candidates among applicants recommended by partner institutions for possible admission to the Program sponsored by a MEXT Scholarship. The screening process consists of two parts; document screening and, if feasible, interviews by our faculty. Applicants on the short list will be contacted for interviews through partner institutions. The interview will be arranged to be held in February 2008 at his/her home or other country. Three of the candidates will be screened and referred to MEXT. The screening results will be notified to applicants through partner institutions by the end of March 2008.

2. Monbukagakusho (MEXT) Decision and notification:

MEXT will make the final and official decision on the Scholarship applications, based on the screening by GSL. The result of the screening by MEXT will be notified to partner institutions and candidates respectively by July 2008 through the host university. Successful candidates will obtain the status of regular graduate students of Nagoya University.

5. Notice to Withdraw

Since there are limited spaces for the MEXT application, anyone wishing to withdraw their application for any reason must submit their Notice to Withdraw (Form No.6) no later than Friday March 21, 2008. Failure to submit the notice by this date will prevent the applicant from applying in the future.

6. Enrollment Procedures

Detailed information regarding enrollment registration procedures will be sent to the candidates in July 2008. Candidates must register for enrollment during the period from October 1 through 7, 2008 at the Student Affairs Section of the GSL Administrative Office.

* Note that a candidate's status will be suspended by MEXT in case of failure to register by the designated dates.

Required Fees:

MEXT Scholarship Grantees are totally exempted from payments of registration fees, entrance fees, and tuition fees.

* The fees for registration for the academic year 2008 are as follows (in yen):

Entrance fee: 282,000 yen, tuition fee: 267,900 yen (per semester) (yearly tuition fee is 535,800 yen)

 Autumn semester begins on October 1 and ends on March 31 of the following year. / Spring semester begins on April 1 and ends on September 30.

7. Treatment of Information on Individuals

Any information regarding individuals which has been obtained in the course of invitations for applications or from details filled in application documents, shall be used for the purposes of notifications concerning the application in hand, entrance examinations, announcements of results of entrance examinations, enrollment procedures and any other items subsidiary to these situations. It will also be used for the administration of the school register and for academic records connected with student academic affairs after enrollment. Furthermore, any information obtained concerning individuals will be treated appropriately, and shall never be used for other than its administrative purpose.
