Application for Admission to the LL.M. (Comparative Law) Program in Law and Political Science for International Students 2008

The Graduate School of Law (GSL), Nagoya University, Japan

The Nagoya University Graduate School of Law (GSL) invites application for the LL.M. (Comparative Law) Program in Law and Political Science for International students for the academic year of 2008.

This program mainly conducted in English is designed for international students from a variety of legal backgrounds, who are expected to contribute to their country as legal professionals in government, academy, international organizations, non-governmental organizations, and private sectors.

This program will accept students both in April and October every academic year. However, since there are additional requirements for October enrollment, this booklet concerns application related to April enrollment only. The application information for October enrollment will be available in a separate booklet.

1 Qualifications and Conditions for application

1) Nationality: Applicants must be non-Japanese citizens.

2) Qualifications:

Those who meet one of the following qualifications are eligible to apply:

- (1) Applicants who have completed, or are expecting to complete by March 31, 2008, 16 years of formal education in foreign countries;
- (2) Applicants who have completed or are expecting to complete by March 31, 2008, 16 years of formal education in Japan through taking correspondence courses managed by foreign schools;
- (3) Applicants who have graduated or will graduate by March 31, 2008 from an accredited Japanese university;
- (4) Applicants who have been awarded or are expecting to be awarded by March 31, 2008, a Bachelor's Degree by the National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation (NIAD), an independent administrative institution;
- (5) Applicants who have completed or are expecting to complete by March 31, 2008, a course offered by a foreign university situated in Japan (whose graduates are regarded as completing 16 years of formal education in the foreign country concerned), that is recognized as part of the formal educational system of the relevant foreign country and for which the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology has indicated approval;
- (6) Applicants who have completed (or will complete by March 31, 2008) an advanced professional course of the professional training college. The course must fulfill the requirements set by the Minister of Education, Science, Culture and Sports (e.g., offering a minimum of four years of education, etc.) and be recognized by the Minister of Education, Science and Sports as such. Applicants must have graduated from the course after the date of approval by the Minister of Education, Science, Culture and Sports.

- (7) Applicants who have been designated under the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (Notification No. 5 of the Ministry of Education of 1953);
- (8) Applicants who were on register at an accredited university in Japan for no less than three years or who have completed at least 15 years of formal education in a foreign country or have completed a relevant course managed by a foreign university situated in Japan (whose graduates are regarded as completing 16 years of formal education of the foreign country) which is recognized as part of the formal educational system of the foreign country and for which the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology has indicated approval and who are recognized by our Graduate School as received necessary units or credits with good records; or
- (9) Applicants who are recognized by our Graduate School as possessing academic ability equivalent to or above that of a graduate on the basis of individual preliminary screening of qualifications* and are age 22 or over by March 31, 2008.

* Those wishing to qualify under above category (9) should refer to the Note on the “Individual Preliminary Screening of Qualifications,” which is given in 4. ‘Documents required for Application’ below.

2 Admission Openings

There are 35 openings in total for the master’s programs* of the Graduate School of Law (GSL) each year.

* This number includes candidates to a Master’s Program for Academics, an LL.M. (Modern Law) Program for Professionals, and the LL.M. (Comparative Law) Program for International Students.

The LL.M. (Comparative Law) Program is mainly aimed at international students, such as Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarship students and those sent by foreign governments or the equivalent.* There are twenty places for these students and a few places for independently-financed students.

* Regardless of applicants’ status, “equivalent” is deemed to include those in receipt of scholarships supplied by regional government or funding organizations, as well as those in receipt of scholarships from a foreign central government.

3 Application Procedures

Submission of Application

All documents required for application listed in section 4 below, together with a non-refundable application fee of ¥30,000 (Japanese yen) should be submitted during the following filing period to the student affairs section of the GSL administrative office (For the mailing address, see the last page of this booklet.).

* Students funded by the Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarship do not have to pay an application fee.

In case of mailing, applications have to be sent by registered mail. For those applying by mail, the application must reach the office with APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE GRADUATE PROGRAM written in red on the face of the envelope. In this case, an application fee must be sent in the form of a postal money order with the space of ‘To be paid to...’ left blank. When remitting from abroad, the application fee must be sent in the form of an international postal money order for ¥30,000 yen with the name of the payee on the front side of the money order left blank.

Filing Period for Application

Applications will be accepted two times per year as follows. Late applications will not be considered.

- 1) Autumn selection Applications will be accepted between Thursday, September 6, 2007 and Tuesday, September 11, 2007.
- 2) Spring selection Applications will be accepted between Monday, January 7, 2008 and Wednesday, January 9, 2008.

* The office is open from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (closed from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.) and closed on national holidays, Saturday and Sunday.

4 Documents Required for Application

The following documents are required. Documents for application should be typewritten or neatly written in English block letters. In the event that certificates, transcripts and other documents are in a language other than English or Japanese, a translation into one of these languages must be attached.

- (1) Application form (No.1) written in English;
- (2) Field of Study and Proposed Research Plan on prescribed form No.2, written in English;
- (3) A certificate of graduation or prospective graduation or degree conferral, issued by the university the applicant has attended;
